Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Monday 21 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Bright and sunny spells developing.

Today:
A cloudy start across central and southern Scotland with patchy rain. Brighter conditions across the north will develop widely during the day. Scattered light showers in the north.

Tonight:
Mainly dry with sunny or clear spells, any light showers in the north soon dying out. Turning chilly by dawn and winds will be light.

Tuesday:
Dry and bright across much of the country with good spells of sunshine. Cloud will thicken across the northwest with patchy rain and drizzle. Winds freshening around the west coast.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Rain and drizzle mainly affecting the north and west on Wednesday and Thursday, brighter spells in the east. Rain clearing south on Friday, bright or sunny spells developing.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.